5. Review of 2011-2012 Calendar Schedule

The next Calendar Meeting will be held at Michael J. Petrides Complex, Building B, 715 Ocean Terrace, S.I., NY hosted by P037R. The topic will be Busing.

6. Busing Agenda

Matthew Berlin, who heads OPT: Office of Pupil Transportation, is taking on a new assignment. Matt will be transitioning to the Finance Office and will work under CFO, Veronica Conforme, to lend his talents to help the DOE capture its Medicaid reimbursement.

Eric Goldstein, Director of OPT: Office Of Pupil Transportation was contacted requesting his participation during the September Calendar Meeting in Staten Island. Mr. Goldstein was provided copies of the Busing Booklet formatted by the council and thereafter worked on jointly with Matt Berlin and OPT staff. The council would like to finish the booklet for their September Calendar Meeting and present to the parents as a guide.

7. Gary Hecht, Superintendent, District 75

Gary Hecht and Barbra Joseph attended the September working meeting to speak to the council regarding the District 75 Quality Review: Several Schools received undeveloped and are now proficient (721M/811M). The New 2010-2011 progress reports are due (within 2-3 weeks). New classes will be opening for district 75 students, 22 in total (Queens). Gary mentioned the Annual Principal that was a success and parent coordinators meeting he wishes for the council to attend. Standard assessment ELA stayed the same and Math made some gains.

8. Guest Speaker: Jamie Pagliaro of Rethink Autism

Rethink Autism is an Affordable Web-Based Tools & Remote Professional Service that offers parents and professionals immediate access to effective and affordable Applied Behavior Analysis-based treatment tools; for the growing population affected by autism spectrum disorders. Rethink Autism's curriculum is based on the educational intervention that time and continual research has proven most effective in the treatment of autism: applied behavior analysis (ABA)
